YarnMy name's Kate Shackleton. I'm thirty-one years old, and hanging onto freedom by the skin of my teeth. Because I'm a widow my mother wants me back by her side. But I've tasted independence. Dying in the Wool (Kate Shackleton Series #1) by Frances ... "Dying in the Wool" was a well written and well plotted cozy mystery set in the 1920s. Kate Shackleton finds that she has a knack of finding missing people after W.W.1. She is hired by a friend Tabitha Braithwaite to locate Tabitha's father who went missing seven years ago. He disappeared from a hospital.

Shackleton is coping with the loss of her own husband by helping those whose loved ones have disappeared during the conflict. When an acquaintance for her days in the VAD (Voluntary Aid Detachment) asks for help in locating her missing father, a successful mill owner, Kate takes on the case.
