Ecstasy is a collection of three short love stories by Irvine Welsh. Not love stories in the classical sense, more love stories for the modern, ecstasy fuelled, party age. The kind of love stories where the characters are heavily flawed and you aren't sure if their love will last, or even if they were really in love to begin with.

Irvine Welsh - Wikipedia

Irvine's Comment "Ecstasy is a funny book for me, and in some ways it's probably my biggest disappointment. It gets an incredible emotional response from some people. One young woman was in tears at a reading when she approached me, she told me I'd written her life story in 'The Undeclared', which is probably the best story in the book.
