Education
This foundation edition has been designed as a compliment to full text editions of Religion and Life, and should be ideal for use with the 2001 specification short course in religious education. While covering different religions, such as Islam, Hinduism, Judaism and Christianity, it looks at various issues like life and death, religion and the media and believing in God, all designed to challenge the view of students. There are also exam questions on each topic that are relevant to the Certificate of Achievement and GCSE.
