Any time Poe creates a character whose name has two Ls and an A in it, Silverman is convinced Poe is taking a slap at his foster fother, John ALLan. To Silverman, every dying woman represents Poe's mother, and any remotely heroic character calls up Poe's brother, William Henry Leonard Poe.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Edgar A. Poe: Mournful and ... Wow, this was just depressing; and I'm not talking about Edgar Allan Poe's life. If this book had actually been able to capture the despair, beauty, romanticism, and eeriness of Poe's life and career this book would have been depressing for a whole other reason, and would also have a 5 star rating from me. Edgar A. Poe: Mournful and Never-ending Remembrance ... The exegesis of Poe's writing is intelligent, realistic, and relates in a believable way to the circumstances of the writer's life. Moreover, Silverman's meticulous appendices and notes should prove invaluable to future scholars. A remarkable success: the first major biography of Poe in over 50 years, written with careful skill and great style.
