El secreto de las hermanas Blackwood ALFAGUARA Offers lists of Spanish and English idioms, slang, and false cognates, with their meanings and use in sentences; discusses indecent language and tricky points of grammar; and provides advice on etiquette and customs, especially in Mexico. Essays and Reflections Ollie Bray In this bone-chilling digital original story set in the world of Madeleine Roux’s New York Times bestselling novel Asylum, a Louisiana teen tries to make tuition money working for a sinister organization but finds that leaving comes at a terrible cost. When Dan, Abby, and Jordan meet Oliver in Catacomb—the third book in the Asylum series—he is a mysterious young antiques dealer with a dark past. But before he was stuck in America’s most haunted city, he was a teenager with a bright future ahead of him. In this story, we find Oliver saving up to attend his dream college in the fall and leave behind his family’s New Orleans antique shop for good. And if his job just happens to involve robbing graves for a group calling themselves the Bone Artists, well—money is money, and it’s only for now. But Oliver soon learns that the Bone Artists don’t take kindly to deserters. And there are some debts that can never be repaid. With a mounting sense of dread that builds to a terrible end, The Bone Artists is a thrilling installment in the Asylum series that can stand on its own for new readers or provide a missing piece of the puzzle for series fans. The Bone Artists New Directions Publishing Fires consists of nine monologues and narratives based on classical Greek stories. Antigone, Clytemnestra, Phaedo, Sappho are all mythical figures whose stories are mingled with contemporary themes. Interspersed are highly personal narratives, reflecting on a time of profound inner crisis in the author's life. "The unwritten novel among the fantasies and aphorisms of Fires is a classic tale."—Stephen Koch, New York Times Book Review

Fenómenos de circo B DE BOOKS

Como si el mundo del circo fuera apenas una proyección del nuestro, esta novela logra que lo carnavalesco, lo grotesco y lo ficcional se integren a lo cotidiano e í ntimo. Lima, julio de 1831. Se inician las celebraciones por el décimo año de la independencia del Perú, y el Circo Cielos Americanos, trashumante y bastante venido a menos llega a Lima. El dueño del circo quiere aprovechar la visita a la capital para salvar al circo de la bancarrota, llevando a cabo diversos planes que involucran a sus principales estrellas: el hombre más fuerte del mundo, la mujer barbuda, el tragafuegos y la trapecista de quince años de cabellera rubia, a quien hace pasar por princesa rusa e intenta casar con el aristocrático y extravagante coronel Juan de Alcázar y Benavente. Si bien hay muchas referencias históricas, la novela está lejos de ser un retrato de época, pues está centrada en el mundo í ntimo y atemporal de los trabajadores del circo, en los vínculos de amistad y solidaridad que los unen. "Y sintió un dulce sabor de aventura al reconocer que seguía aferrada a su trapecio pero que su cielo era ahora el azul brumoso del planeta y ya no más el de la carpa desteñida del circo. La Trapecista siguió avanzando por el Jirón de la Unión y reconoció que necesitaba volver al circo. Quería ver mujeres barbudas, magos sin conejos, payasos llorones, elefantes nostálgicos..."

Roman Diary María José Moreno Lavín Escribir es desnudarse delante de un espejo. Pero no delante de un espejo cualquiera, sino de uno tan potente y sincero que consigue que puedas verte por dentro. Que puedas sentir tus defectos y acariciar tus virtudes. Conocer tus miedos y valorar tus anhelos. Un espejo especial que no te devuelve una imagen, sino que te devuelve a tu propio yo. El real, el de verdad, el que no se esconde detrás de artificios. Ese yo más í ntimo que reside dentro de ti, aunque a veces no lo encuentres. El que te ayuda en los malos momentos, el que te enciende la luz al final del pasillo, el que te abraza incluso cuando no lo necesitas. Este libro es mi espejo. Y espero que leerlo, de alguna manera, te ayude a desnudarte frente al tuyo. Maya's Notebook PLAZA & JANES Para Kyle, ser un circense es un problema. Para Lavelle, una maldición. Para Gunnir, un sueño. Estos tres amigos siempre han soñado con una vida más allá del siniestro orfanato en el que han crecido. Hasta que un día, Kyle descubre que, en realidad, es un circense y esa misma noche unos hombres lo raptan y lo meten en un carro. Lavelle, una joven payasa que odia hacer reír, y Gunnir, un chico corriente que sueña con ser mago, no dudarán en ir tras él sin saber que están a punto de embarcarse en la aventura más grande de sus vidas y del reino de Fortuna, donde hablar con animales, controlar el fuego, bailar sobre la tela de una araña, conocer el futuro o volar sobre los tejados, es posible. --Goodreads. Poemas escogidos Grupo Planeta (GBS)

Sátira de la publicidad, los libros de autoayuda, el ocultismo, el ligue cibernético, las novelas de enigma histórico con templarios y rosacruces, El secreto del gazpacho encierra en sus páginas más humor que la más disparatada comedia y más aventuras que el más desenfrenado thriller. Rodrigo Alonso, un publicitario de éxito que ha pasado ya la barrera de los cuarenta, ve que la edad de oro de la publicidad pertenece al pasado. Su crisis se agudiza y concluye con el abandono de la agencia en la que trabaja. Mientras se concentra inútilmente en la escritura de un libro de autoayuda sobre el hombre de nuestro tiempo, se ve involucrado en la conspiración de una secta pitagórica que quiere dominar el mundo y que le confunde con la reencarnación de su mítico fundador. A partir de ese momento se hallará envuelto en un torbellino de alocadas desgracias...

Creer en las flores Createspace Independent Publishing Platform Acción, suspense y romanticismo. La novela sobre una de las etapas más desconocidas de la biografía del Rey de España. Estoril, 1956. El príncipe Juan Carlos de Borbón vive un apasionado romance con Mafalda Cornaro, una joven rubia que encarna el new look de Christian Dior. Pero un aciago día, el infante Alfonso de Borbón recibe un disparo mortal procedente de la pistola que empuña su hermano mayor, Juan Carlos, mientras juega con él en la residencia de los condes de Barcelona en el exilio. Vasconcelos en sus memorias Punto Rojo Libros “Allende can spin a yarn with the grace of a poet.”—Entertainment Weekly AN INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER, NOW WITH A NEW DEAR READER LETTER From the New York Times bestselling author of A Long Petal of the Sea and The House of the Spirits, an enthralling and suspenseful coming-of-age story about a teenage girl who must unravel the mysteries of her past in order to save herself. Nineteen-year-old Maya Vidal grew up in a rambling old house in Berkeley with her grandmother Nini—a force of nature whose formidable strength helped her build a new life after she emigrated from Chile in 1973—and Popo, an African-American astronomer and professor whose solid, comforting presence helps calm the turbulence of Maya's adolescence. When Popo dies of cancer, Maya comes undone and turns to drugs, alcohol, and petty crime.

When she becomes lost in the dangerous underworld of Las Vegas, Maya becomes caught in the crosshairs of deadly warring forces. Her one chance for survival is Nini, who helps her escape to a remote island off the coast of Chile. Here, Maya tries to make sense of the past to discover the truth about her life and her family, and embarks on her greatest adventure: a journey of self-discovery and forgiveness.

El trapecista de adobe y neón Macmillan Desde la más genuina poesía de verso y prosa hecha con la sustancia de los cuentos de bellas y bestias, conmueve en este libro la porfía de Cuasimodo que hermosea a la irredenta novia en el preeminente amor a fuerza de serle negado, hasta alcanzar una de las más sugerentes voces de la lírica cubana actual. A Novel Harvard University Press Confucius taught us that the only person who can always be happy is the one who knows how to be happy with everything. Similarly, if we avoid passive conformism and false resignation, we discover that the password to open the doors of personal fulfilment is made up of a single syllable: YES. YES. To life, just as it is. To ourselves, just as we are. To others, just as they are. To our parents, just as they are and as they were, as the providential vehicles of our existence and much more. This is the message that Joan Garriga Bacardí unveils in this book—poetic, though-provoking, and conducive to change—about a basic issue that concerns us all: the process of assuming our origins, our family legacy, and of thereby finding our place in the world. The text celebrates life without taking away its realism and harshness, thereby distancing itself from artificial, positivist psychology. Where are the Coins? offers new perspectives for the soul, both for those who suffer when they think of their parents and for those who do so with gratitude. It speaks the language of reconciliation and peace. It shows the power of love and how to integrate and overcome the wounds that get in the way of having a full life.

Fall in love with Penguin Drop Caps, a new series of twenty-six collectible and hardcover editions, each with a type cover showcasing a gorgeously illustrated letter of the alphabet. In a design collaboration between Jessica Hische and Penguin Art Director Paul Buckley, the series features unique cover art by Hische, a superstar in the world of type design and illustration, whose work has appeared everywhere from Tiffany & Co. to Wes Anderson's recent film Moonrise Kingdom to Penguin's own bestsellers Committed and Rules of Civility. With exclusive designs that have never before appeared on Hische's hugely popular Daily Drop Cap blog, the Penguin Drop Caps series debuted with an 'A' for Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice, a 'B' for Charlotte Brönte's Jane Eyre, and a 'C' for Willa Cather's My Ántonia. It continues with more perennial classics, perfect to give as elegant gifts or to showcase on your own shelves. Z is for Zafón. Barcelona, 1945: A city slowly heals in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War. Daniel, an antiquarian book dealer's son who mourns the loss of his mother, finds solace in what he finds in the “cemetery of lost books,” a mysterious book entitled The Shadow of the Wind, by one Julián Carax. But when he sets out to find the author's other works, he makes a shocking discovery: someone has been systematically destroying every copy of every book Carax has written. In fact, Daniel may have the last of Carax's books in existence. Soon Daniel's seemingly innocent quest opens a door into one of Barcelona's darkest secrets--an epic story of murder, madness, and doomed love.

3,000 Spanish Words and Phrases They Won't Teach You in School Simon and Schuster The Trueba family embodies strong feelings. This family saga starts at the beginning of the 20th century and continues through the assassination of Allende in 1973. Thus Spake Zarathustra Secta de los Sobrevivientes Professor Amelia Harsh, who is obsessed with finding a prehistoric lost city, accepts patronage from a man she blames for her father's suicide, blackmails an old friend, and leads a crew of freed convicts on a steampunk adventure. [English Edition] Simon and Schuster Imperialism as we knew it may be no more, but Empire is alive and well. It is, as Michael Hardt and Antonio Negri demonstrate in this bold work, the new political order of globalization. Their book shows how this emerging Empire is fundamentally different from the imperialism of European dominance and capitalist expansion in previous eras. Rather, today's Empire draws on elements of U.S. constitutionalism, with its tradition of hybrid identities and expanding frontiers. More than analysis, Empire is also an unabashedly utopian work of political philosophy.

A search for the Beast, a Yeti-like creature within the heart of the Amazon, becomes a quest for self-discovery in this young adult coming-of-age story filled with international adventure, rich mythology, and magical realism from globally celebrated novelist Isabel Allende. Fifteen-year-old Alexander Cold has the chance to take the trip of a lifetime. Parting from his family and ill mother, Alexander joins his fearless grandmother, a magazine reporter for International Geographic, on an expedition to the dangerous, remote world of the Amazon. Their mission, along with the others on their team—including a celebrated anthropologist, a local guide and his young daughter Nadia, and a doctor—is to document the legendary Yeti of the Amazon known as the Beast. Under the dense canopy of the jungle, Alexander is amazed to discover much more than he could have imagined about the hidden worlds of the rain forest. Drawing on the strength of the jaguar, the totemic animal Alexander finds within himself, and the eagle, Nadia's spirit guide, both young people are led by the invisible People of the Mist on a thrilling and unforgettable journey to the ultimate discovery.

Hercolubus or Red Planet is a warning to humanity about the proximity to Earth of the planet Hercolubus. This is an enormous planet whose great gravitational power will create on our planet multiple earthquakes, tidal waves, volcanic eruptions, etc., that will be increasing in intensity until provoking a total alteration of the terrestrial surface. In this book, V.M. Rabol describes the catastrophic events that will happen soon to all of us, some of which we are already witnessing, and the necessary formula to escape from them.
