Worried about an upcoming geography test, Thomas finds himself unable to fall asleep until he tries counting sheep. The American City & County Pelican Publishing Celebrating the twentieth anniversary of the King-Cat zine Never before have so few lines conveyed such a wealth of meaning as in John Porcellino 's quietly riveting book about memory, relationships, and selfhood. During a period of isolation following a divorce, Porcellino penned Map of My Heart, endowing it with the sensitivity and emotional depth so characteristic to his minimalist style. His tender drawings and spacious panels shape an autobiographical testimony where no moment is too small or insignificant for posterity. Pensive walks in the forest, encounters with rogue woodland creatures, school yard fights, Zen meditations, long lost crushes, and childhood exploits are the heart of this therapeutic account of the ever-fleeting present.

The report presents the findings of a survey on the use of video technology in the transportation industry. A search of transportation related publications was performed, and all state transportation departments were asked how videotape was being used to enhance operations. The study revealed that videotape was being used for training, the documentation of research, and traffic studies. Several departments had replaced photolog systems with videolog systems using tape convertible to video laser discs.
