Writing: Night by Elie Wiesel Dialectical Journals

Elie expresses his anger in asking why he should continue to bless a God that has, seemingly, abandoned his people by letting thousands of children burn, by keeping six crematories working day and night, and by creating concentrations camps such as that of Auschwitz, Birkenau, and Buna.

Night By Elie Wiesel Dialectical Journal

Wiesel suggests in this quote that memory is the only thing that truly makes us immortal: it is who remembers, and how they do so, which will keep society involved in collectively acknowledging the past. Never shall I forget that night, the first night in the camp, which has turned into one long night, seven times cursed and seven times sealed.
