Free Employee Performance Review Templates | Smartsheet
The employee performance review is an annual or bi-annual happening in which the employee is rated on their performance. This performance review is part of the performance management cycle. This cycle starts with personal goal setting. Personal goals should be aligned with team goals, which in turn, should be aligned with the goals of the company. When this is the case, good performance for the employee means a boost to team performance, and (in turn) a small boost to organizational performance.
