A YA

romance—with a sparkling commercial voice and a dash of science—that explores a relationship over six years The moment Spencer meets Hope the summer before seventh grade, it ' s something at first sight. The pair become fast friends, climbing trees and planning world travels. After years of being outshone by his older brother and teased because of his Tourette syndrome, Spencer finally feels like he belongs. But as Hope and Spencer get older and life gets messier, the clear label of “ friend ” gets messier, too. Through sibling feuds and family tragedies, new relationships and broken hearts, the two grow together and apart, and Spencer, an aspiring scientist, tries to map it all out using his trusty system of taxonomy. He wants to identify and classify their relationship, but in the end, he finds that life doesn ' t always fit into easy-to-manage boxes, and it ' s this messy complexity that makes life so rich and beautiful. This is for fans of The Running Dream by Wendelin Van Draanen, Grace, Gold, and Glory by Gabrielle Douglass and Breakaway: Beyond the Goal by Alex Morgan. The summer before Caleb and Tessa enter high school, friendship has blossomed into a relationship . . . and their playful sports days are coming to an end. Caleb is getting ready to try out for the football team, and Tessa is training for cross-country. But all their structured plans derail in the final flag game when they lose.

Tessa doesn't want to end her career as a loser. She really enjoys playing, and if she's being honest, she likes it even more than running cross-country. So what if she decided to play football instead?

What would happen between her and Caleb? Or between her two best friends, who are counting on her to try out for cross-country with them? And will her parents be upset that she's decided to take her hobby to the next level?

This summer Caleb and Tessa figure out like. ” —Booklist just what it means to be a boyfriend, girlfriend, teammate, best friend, and someone worth cheering for. “ A great next choice for readers who have enjoyed Catherine Gilbert Murdock ’ s Dairy Queen and Miranda Kenneally ’ s Catching Jordan. ” —SLJ “ Fast-paced football action, realistic family drama, and sweet romance...[will have] readers looking for girl-powered sports stories...find[ing]

This book is the first to systematically
compare biblical,
Ancient Near

and to show that Genesis 1-3 is heavily indebted to Plato ' s Timaeus

cosmogonies by

Greek natural

argues that the idea of a monotheistic
cosmic god was first introduced in Genesis 1 under the influence of Plato ' s philosophy, and that this cosmic Creator
was originally distinct from the lesser
terrestrial gods,
including Yahweh,

It shows the use of Plato ' s Critias, the sequel to Timaeus, in the stories about the
