This is a small book which covers the few years of the Second World War where two boys, Andrew and John Forbat are evacuated away from their family as so many children were. What makes this book different from other evacuees tales? It shows us the letters that the boys, mainly Andrew wrote home to their parents.

Evacuation could be both exciting and frightening. Each child had a different experience. For some children, being evacuated provided a new and exciting opportunity to enjoy country life. Read the letter below, written by a Nottinghamshire evacuee. She had a good experience of being evacuated, but not all children did.
