The best vehicle service records and maintenance journal available at this price. Some folks call this a log book. Enter all of your important service information on the opening page. The very first page has captioned lines for Body Type, Trim Level, Beginning Mileage, Engine Specs, Trans Type, Tire Sizes, Air PSI, Fuel Type / Grade, Oil Type / Viscosity, Oil Filter, Air Filter, Engine Coolant, Trans Fluid, Differential Fluid, Brake Pads, and a few lines for additional info. Write in all of the necessary info for easy access to the part numbers and references needed in one handy journal. Stop looking through your big thick factory owner's manual trying to find which type oil filter you need. The factory owner's manual is approximately 500 pages long! You can enter the most relevant service info you need on one single page in this journal. Following the spec page, is a section with 79 soft gray lined pages for entering date, mileage, and relevant notes for service performed on any given day. An additional 20 pages are in the back for note taking. The lines are "college ruled", which is the standard spacing used in notebooks for educational institutions. Each page has 22 spaces for recording services performed. That's enough room to write-in over 1,700 service entries, PLUS additional notes. This really is the ultimate vehicle service and maintenance records log book!
