I used to feel that each book in the Warriors series had one main part per book, as in one major thing happened and that was it. In Omen of the Stars, though, there is action throughout-- this makes them better than each of the previous series' books, in my opinion. Fading Echoes has excitement throughout all of its 300 plus pages.

Fading Echoes (Warriors: Omen of the Stars, #2) by Erin Hunter Fading Echoes doesn't disappoint. It breathes life into the series once more and is an excellent addition for any Warriors fan old or new to start their enthusiasm for the series once again. Without spoiling too many details, I would say characters whom we grew with are given adequate exposure.
