Falling in love is having similarities that no one has shared with you. It's being passionate about the same things, while also embracing one another's differences. Falling in love is missing them, but feeling secure enough to be apart. To fall in love with someone is like having the best kept secret all to you.

What It's Really Like To Fall In

Love | Thought Catalog

Falling in love is the development of strong feelings of attachment and love, usually towards another person. The term is metaphorical, emphasising that the process, like the physical act of falling, is sudden, uncontrollable and leaves the lover in a vulnerable state, similar to "fall ill" or "fall into a trap". It may also reflect the importance of the lower brain centers in the process, which can lead the rational, accounting brain

It is impossible to fall out of love.
Love is such a
powerful emotion,
that once it
envelops you it
does not depart.
True love is eternal. If you think that you
were once in love,
but fell out of it,
then it wasn't love
you were in. There are no 'exit' signs
in love, there is
only an 'on' ramp.
