'Fallout' by Ellen Hopkins is book three in a semi-autobiographical, mostly-fictional, story about the author's real-life daughter and her addiction to meth (methamphetamine). All three books are written in free verse. The first book is Crank. I think readers should start with the first book in the trilogy.

Fallout by Ellen Hopkins is the final book in the Crank trilogy. I so wanted and expected this book to be just as great as the first two.

However, this wasn't the case. It was alright, but no where near as good as Crank and Glass. Perhaps it was just because I wanted more Kristina, and she wasn't mentioned too much in this book.
