Fangirl by Ken Baker. While staring you straight in the eye, far above the tips of her Toms, Josie Brant would swear that she does not like Peter Maxx, the teen sensation who causes every girl within a foot radius to scream at ear-shattering decibels. Even if Josie may completely, totally, and unequivocally be his biggest fan.

Fangirl by Ken Baker - Goodreads
Fangirl by Ken Baker goes back and forth as it tells the story from both Josie's and Peter's perspective. Josie is kind of shy and writes lyrics when she's trying to make sense of the things in her life. And with her parents' recent divorce it seems like a lot of things don't make sense. Peter struggles to stand out as a person, not just an icon.
