"In a bold new book called Fight, evangelical pastor and bestselling author Preston Sprinkle sets out to answer these important questions as he makes a compelling case for nonviolence. Drawing from his expansive theological background, research, and countless interviews, Preston addresses questions such as how to reconcile what seems like a vengeful God of the Old Testament with the forgiving, nonviolent Christ of the New Testament; how American should defend herself against aggression; what ...

Fight: A Christian Case for Non-Violence — Preston Sprinkle

Christianity is war against lying, unrighteousness, self-love, hypocrisy, etc. First, we must fight against these things in ourselves, and then against the same things in our beloved brothers who themselves want to be finished with sin; finally, we must fight against the spirit that wants to defend such madness (remaining in sin)!

Fight explores violence in the Bible and challenges us to live out Jesus ' call to non-violence. With prophetic relevance, New York Times bestselling author Preston Sprinkle tackles the controversy surrounding violence and grapples with surprising conclusions.
Anyone who has struggled with the morality of violence will appreciate this convincing biblical guide.

In his book Fight: A Christian Case for Non-Violence, Preston lays out his case for why Christians should be non-violent and how far that stance should go. I agree that the default position for Christians should be non-violence (and have written along these lines here, here, and here).
That said, I am still a proponent of the idea of a Just War.
