Alain Silver (Author of Film Noir Reader) - Goodreads

Alain Silver and James Ursini, in their first Film Noir Reader, have collected some of the most ground-breaking essays on film noir, ranging, for instance, from Raymond Borde and Étienne

Chaumeton's 1955 definition of film noir over Raymond Durngat's family tree of the film noir – which lists certain noir themes – to Janey Place and Lowell Peterson's very intriguing foray into visual motifs of the noir.
