In guided reading, the teachers work with a small group of children that are close in reading levels. First grade is A-I, which helps teachers pinpoint the exact level the student is reading. The large variety of books chosen for the program give the students a challenge as well as continue reiterating the words already familiar to their vocabulary.

Guided reading has always been one of my favorite parts of the day. It's a time for me to work with small groups of students to help them become stronger, more confident readers. I meet with at least 2 groups a day for 15-20 minutes (groups are flexible and based on skill/reading level).

Each of my students gets a book bin. In their book bin they keep about 3-4 guided reading books from our
guided reading time.
These books are on
level and have been previously read with
me. I switch these books out as we read
more in our groups.
They also keep up to 5
books from the classroom library.
These are purely
interest books.
