Writing and drawing are critical developmental skills that young children enjoy. Having a composition journal/notebook lets them keep all their creations together in one place. Many first grade classes use composition journals and teachers often require kids to buy their own. They are frequently found on school supply lists for first graders at back-to-school time. The journal is a great idea for kids from Kindergarten to 2nd grade. Each page inside the book has lines typically found on handwriting practice papers. So they can use the journal to practice their handwriting as well as write and illustrate their own stories. The top portion of the journal has room for the illustrations and the bottom portion has lines for writing. There are 160 pages in the notebook which is 80 actual sheets. The size is standard composition book size which is roomy enough for designs and writing but comfortable enough to hold. The back cover has a label for the child's name. The journal makes a cute, inexpensive birthday, Christmas and other occasion gift for nieces, nephews and godchildren.
