As a way to lighten her mood she began again with something light-hearted –her debut novel First Light, which was published in 2007 by Wendy Lamb Books, an imprint of Random House. When You Reach Me takes place in New York City during 1978–1988. The story follows Miranda, a sixth grader, as she recalls the events of the past few months, laying out clues and puzzles as she asks an unseen listener to figure it out.

(The Horn Book Magazine) "Stead's debut novel rests on an intriguing premise.... It is a testament to the storytelling that the existence of this parallel world and the convergence of Peter and Thea's stories, told in separate chapters, are both credible and absorbing. Young readers will find this a journey worth taking."
