Only Lengyel's work in the prisoners' underground resistance and the need to tell this story kept her fighting for survival. She survived by her wit and incredible strength. Despite her horrifying closeness to the subject, FIVE CHIMNEYS does not retreat into self-pity or sensationalism.

“Five Chimneys” is a Holocaust memoir written by Olga Lengyel, a Hungarian woman deported to Auschwitz in 1944 after the Germans occupied her native country. From the very beginning, she is subjected to inhumane conditions of the camp which, along with learning the news of her children and elderly parents perishing right after the arrival, almost completely break her will to live.
