Food, girls and other things I can't have is a very interesting young adult novel by Allen Zadoff which tells a very fiction-like, yet believable story, including a lot of comedy elements, which makes the story have a more authentic feel to it, being told from the perspective of a high schooler. In high school, everything seems like a challenge.

Review - Food, Girls, and Other Things I Can't Have

My rating of the book, Food, Girls and Other Things I Can't Have, is a full out 5 out of 5 stars. I feel like I can really relate to the book in many ways. This book connects with teenagers today because of the issues between Andrew and the rest of the characters throughout the book.

FOOD, GIRLS, AND OTHER THINGS I CAN'T HAVE is the story of a boy who doesn't fit--in his pants, in his family, in his school, or in his life. If Andrew Zansky can only be thin enough, smart enough, or popular enough, he thinks everything in his life will be perfect. His father will come back home. The pretty girl in school will fall in love with him.
