"Richard Haass is one of America's most insightful and experienced thinkers. In Foreign Policy Begins at Home, Haass explains why our ability to wield power and influence abroad will depend on our confronting pressing challenges at home. He offers a sobering look at the domestic policies that are undermining our international competitiveness--and a thoughtful roadmap for strengthening America's position on the global stage."—

By Neil Bhatiya. Foreign Policy Begins at Home: The Case for Putting America's House in Order. By Richard N. Haass. Basic Books, New York, 2013. 208 pp. Richard Haass is a foreign policy establishment man upset with the establishment. The former head of the State Department's Policy Planning Staff and current president of the Council on Foreign Relations laments that a decade of poor strategic choices has left the United States in an untenable position to exercise credible global leadership.
