Angela, thanks to her upbringing on the peaceful isle of Avalon, is the gentlest and most innocent member of the clan - she remained somewhat naive, in fact, long after coming to Manhattan. She views harmony between humans and gargoyles as natural, thanks to the aforesaid upbringing, and so cannot understand why the humans of New York fear and hate her clan so much (it is unclear if she is ... Smashwords - Angels and Gargoyles - a book by Monte R ...

Gargoyles was a natural choice in the Schraner household. The series revolved around a clan of nocturnal creatures wrongly called gargoyles—more on that later—who transform into stone at sunrise and reawaken each night with sunset. The premise of the story is pretty simple: a thousand years ago in tenth-century Scotland a clan of gargoyles ...

Gargoyles vary in their appearance. I found a picture of a gargoyle who resembles the one who appeared in picture taken of me. Here it is. I have seen fallen angels and demons on photographs at least 10 times or more over the last 40 years. Never have I seen one of God's angels so I don't know what they look like. Angels and Gargoyles is a novelette about a romance among heavenly hosts; a beauty and the beast type love story. It tells how two of God's workers, for unexplainable reasons, fall in love, much to the chagrin of St. Peter. They are the two most unlikely pair for romance to begin with; angels are more beautiful while gargoyles are more worldly.
