The phenomenon returns! Originally published in 1987, The Book of Questions, a New York Times bestseller, has been completely revised and updated to incorporate the myriad cultural shifts and hot-button issues of the past twenty-five years, making it current and even more appealing. This is a book for personal growth, a tool for deepening relationships, a lively conversation starter for the family dinner table, a fun way to pass the time in the car. It poses over 300 questions that invite people to explore the most fascinating of subjects: themselves and how they really feel about the world. The revised edition includes more than 100 all-new questions that delve into such topics as the disappearing border between man and machine—How would you react if you learned that a sad and beautiful poem that touched you deeply had been written by a computer? The challenges of being a parent—Would you completely rewrite your child's college-application essays if it would help him get into a better school? The never-endingly interesting topic of sex—Would you be willing to give up sex for a year if you knew it would give you a much deeper sense of peace than you now have? And of course the meaning of it all—If you were handed an envelope with the date of your death inside, and you knew you could do nothing to alter your fate, would you look? The Book of Questions may be the only publication that challenges—and even changes—the way you view the world, without offering a single opinion of its own.

Everyone over 50 fondly remembers entertainment's Golden Age—the radio programs, television programs, movies, and comic books of the 1950's and 1960's. Spend hours of fun testing your memory and remembering your childhood! Remember "Helen Trent" and "The Shadow?" Remember "Texaco Star Theater" and "Winky Dink?" How about the comic books "Green Arrow" and "Little LuLu?" Can you name the stars of the movie "A Streetcar Named Desire?" For which 1960's movie did Lee Marvin win best supporting actor (he thanked his horse at the Oscar ceremony)?

John Wiley & Sons Golding's iconic 1954 novel, now with a new foreword by Lois Lowry, remains one of the greatest books ever written for young adults and an unforgettable classic for readers of any age. This edition includes a new Suggestions for Further Reading by Jennifer Buehler. At the dawn of the next world war, a plane crashes on an uncharted island, stranding a group of schoolboys. At first, with no adult supervision, their freedom is something to celebrate. This far from civilization they can do anything they want. Anything. But as order collapses, as strange howls echo in the night, as terror begins its reign, the hope of adventure seems as far removed from reality as the hope of being rescued.

Hunting birds is something Garfield's never had any interest in. But when he finds a nest full of abandoned eggs, Garfield puts his feline pride aside and decides to help them hatch. Harry, the stray cat from down the block, would love to put the newborn birds right on his dinner menu. As soon as they hatch, the birds assume Garfield is their mother and start following him around everywhere! Garfield can't take naps any more, and his water bowl has been turned into a bird bath. Is Garfield stuck being the birds' mom forever? Also featuring the stories "Curse of the Were-dog" and "Little Yellow Riding Hood."

Jodi Picoult's book Leaving Time is a mystery about a 13 year old girl who is looking for her mother that disappeared when she was three years old. She uses her scientist mother's journals to look for clues and teams up with a washed up psychic and an old private detective that worked on her mother's case a decade ago and now drinks a little too much for his own good. The trio find many questions instead of answers, and some of those questions are a bit hard to answer easily, seeming to intersect with the research in the journals concerning elephant

Lord of the Flies Crown NATIONAL BESTSELLER

- A coming-of-age classic, acclaimed by critics, beloved by readers of all ages, taught in schools and universities alike, and translated around the world—from the winner of the 2019 PEN/Nabokov Award for Achievement in International Literature. The House on Mango Street is the remarkable story of Esperanza Cordero, a young Latina girl growing up in Chicago, inventing for herself who and what she will become. Told in a series of vignettes—sometimes heartbreaking, sometimes deeply joyous—Sandra Cisneros' masterpiece is a classic story of childhood and self-discovery. Few other books in our time have touched so many readers.

“ Cisneros draws on her rich [Latino] heritage ... and seduces with precise, spare prose, creat[ing] unforgettable characters we want to lift off the page. She is not only a gifted writer, but an absolutely essential one. ” —The New York Times Book Review
