In Memoriam Sempiternam Xlibris Corporation

I am writing this book because I have had many wondrous visions and spiritual experiences including a face to face talk with the Lord of Glory. I began hearing the voice of the Holy Spirit at the age of 18 even though I was not studying the Bible or going to church. I must explain; I am not writing this book from the point of view of a historical, linguist, or a professional or a dogmatic religious Christian. I view scripture from a reality of many actual spiritual encounters including a face to face conversation with the Lord of Glory (Jesus the Christ) in which he qualified my understanding of organized religion by saying, 'what you say is true'. I had just made the statement, 'the people do not know you'. This would be because they follow the dictates of organized religion without having an actual relationship with the Spirit of God. This book is designed to expand your mind and give you a better understanding of the elusive and provocative subject of Bible prophesy at its conclusion, you will know the story, without question. This would include a unrepentable scientific explanation of creation, what really happened to Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, the purpose of Baptism and coded information found in the Bible. In today's world faith in God has become a myriad of life experiences. Everything from the ultra-conservative right who think that God is the sum total of the American historical understanding, to the rainbow liberal who thinks that religion is a necessary evil for the stability of the human psyche. This kind of thinking has fostered a new concept of spirituality and created a new order of the religious elite. If you cannot credential yourself with some seminary, university or college of higher learning, you are not considered to be qualified to be a leader in the church, by the clergy or the laity. Yet most non-Christians consider Christians to be psychologically inferior. I am not placing blame anywhere because there is enough blame to go around. But how have we arrived at such a place in time where this kind of thinking is so commonplace, not only in the churches but also in every echelon of human endeavor. There is a conspiracy in this world today. It is found in our system of government, in our institutions of learning and in our social/religious endeavors: Keep them Guessing, keep modulating the frequency, never acknowledge the truth, glory in the darkness is the mentality that is slowly eroding the greatest society that has ever existed. The challenge for mankind today is to embrace not only wisdom (education) but to disdain all lies and falsehoods. If we consider ourselves to be enlightened, we must demonstrate a true example of understanding, based on knowledge and not dogma. I am a person who believes in the faithfulness of good people even before I developed a personal relationship with God. God believed in me because I believed in goodness a word that organized religion has written out of faithfulness but it's actually the very foundation faithfulness is based.

In his sixth book, renowned photographer, popular instructor, and best-selling author Bryan Peterson challenges and inspires us to see close-up photography in new ways when we view it through his eyes. You've seen the dewdrops, but what about dewdrops on a bird's wing or raindrops on a car windshield? You've seen the bumblebees on vibrant flowers, but what about the fluid edge of just one petal or the colorful rusting metal at industrial sites? Even when Peterson does capture the more traditional subjects, it's done in untraditional ways--and often with minimal specialized equipment! Most important, he moves beyond the commonplace to inspire new ways of getting close, using your lenses, and discovering unconventional subjects.

The art of managing a healthy, realistic, and sustainable negotiated Dominant/submissive or Master/slave relationship starts with the individual who wants to be in charge. All too often, however, would-be Masters have unrealistic ideas about what it means to effectively and compassionately manage another human being, or they lack the significant skills necessary to make it work. This book calls on the wisdom of a number of experienced Masters of many different genders, styles, and walks of life, and maps out the pitfalls and challenges of walking this complicated path.

The Greatest Story Never Told Tony Northrup

James and Katie Falcon are astonished when a Time Ship appears in the cellar with their long-deceased ancestor Captain Horatio Falcon at the helm. The Ship includes a fresh food supply of two cows. Pandemonium breaks out when Great-Aunt Dorothea is faced with a cow in her lounge. The spooked second cow stumbles into the Time Ship's controls, despatching the Ship into the past at 'Lost Island'. But it is swarming with bloodthirsty treasure-seeking pirates and the crew's odds of survival appear impossible. Then the youngsters discover the Time Ship's mysterious source of power and the odds of their survival and their future change spectacularly.

To those on the outside, the Powells are a happy family, but then a devastating accident destroys their fragile facade. When seven-year-old Henry is blamed for the tragedy, he tries desperately to make his parents happy again. As Henry grows up, he is full of potential—a talented sportsman with an academic mind and a thirst for adventure—but soon he questions if the guilt his parents have burdened him with has left him unable to escape his anguished family or their painful past. With a delicate touch and masterful attention to detail, New York Times bestselling author Elizabeth Flock invites us to meet a man both ordinary and extraordinary, and to experience a life that has yet to be lived.

My Dad's Camera Peachpit Press

Twenty years ago I set out to photograph children all around the world. My first trip was to the south of India. I started in the province of Tamil Nadu, first living in a Church Women Centre in the city of Chennai, then in Mugaiyur, a small village. For six months I took pictures and had conversations with roommates, guides, and members of the families who had taken me in as a guest. I had very many questions, as did they. After children, the main subject was always love. Everything I heard from them and saw around me there filled me with both surprise and doubt, but above all with admiration. I admired their courage and faith. Their arranged marriages were a fascinating mystery to me. One way to understand arranged marriages was to make portraits. I photographed women and men various ages, engaged or planned couples and married couples.

Over the past decade, photographer Robert Burley has traveled the world documenting the abandonment and destruction of film-based photography, namely, the factories where film was produced and the labs that developed it. Burley's atmospheric large-format photographs transport viewers to rarely seen sites where the alchemy of the photographic process was practiced over the last century—from the Polaroid plant in Waltham, Massachusetts to the Kodak-Pathé plant in Chalon-sur-Saône, France, the birthplace in 1827 of photography itself. As both fine art and documentary, The Disappearance of Darkness is an elegiac reflection on the resilience of traditional art forms in the digital era and a vital commemoration of a century-old industry that seems to have disappeared overnight.

Fans of bird watching will rejoice with Backyard Bird Photography, a guide for learning how to set up your backyard in order to take the best photographs of your local birds. In addition to guiding you through the first steps of setting up your plantings and bird feeders, this book describes the types of photographic equipment you will need to get just the right image; how to maneuver yourself into just the right position to create a quality bird photograph; how to compose your shots for the greatest visual effect; and how to use more advanced techniques such as macro lenses and external flash techniques. Author and bird photographer Mathew Tekulsky breaks down the challenges of photographing these beautiful creatures and explains how utilizing your own natural surroundings can create stunning shots that rival those shot in the wild. Tekulsky explains that when your garden is set up as a tiny oasis for these feathered friends—with the right foliage, water sources, and feeders—then your backyard will be frequented by a variety of species on any given day. With tips for gaining the bird's trust and composition, every photograph will come out a stunner.
