The work of the "divine" Michelangelo Buonarroti (1475-1564) has been an inspiration to art, artists, and art lovers for all time. The life and creative period of this sculptor, painter, and architect spans almost an entire century. Both his sculpture---for example the monumental David or Moses---and his painting, which cluminated in the creation over many years of the frescoes in the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican, are among the masterpieces of Western art. In the free expression of artistic creativity with which Michelangelo constantly looked beyond existing traditions, he anticipated---as almost no one else---the representational principles of modern art. This volume presents the entire spectrum of Michelangelo's work and illuminates all its facets. Yet attention does not focus solely on the great Renaissance artist, but also on Michelangelo the person, who was subject to, in the turbulent political and religious periods of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries, the interests and attitudes of both secular and ecclesiastical rulers, as well as the machinations of scheming fellow artists. It is all the more to the credit of his immense artistic talent that, despite these difficult circumstances, Michelangelo created sculptures, frescoes, buildings, and also poetry that are outstanding in their brilliance to this day. "What the artist seeks to achieve with the greatest work and with the greatest diligence, in the sweat of his brow, is that everything he produces with the greatest effort should look as if it had been created quickly, almost effortlessly, indeed with the greatest of ease---whatever the truth of the matter...and the essential principle remains: to expend heavy effort and nevertheless create something weightless." Michelangelo, 1538

The Great Allegheny Passage (GAP) is a bicycle rail trail extending 150 miles between Pittsburgh, PA, and Cumberland, MD. Defunct railroad lines function as a restored corridor, connecting southwestern PA and northern MD. Visualize a crushed limestone trail that rambles through urban neighborhoods, fertile farmlands, and panoramic mountain ranges. The weight of your body propels you through a marvelous natural world that dovetails scenic waterways. Listen to rustling leaves through a cacophony of bird songs, or breathe in the sweet aroma of blossoming wildflowers and fruit trees. Marvel at ancient ruins from the region's rich coal and steel heritage. Pedal across iron giants-refurbished bridges and viaducts- or travel through the cold, ghostly, darkened train tunnels. All these experiences, and many more, await you on the Great Allegheny Passage. Whether you are a two-wheeled explorer or an armchair adventurer, it's time to decide. Are you ready for a truly amazing ride? Biking the GAP is a visual documentary of the trail, focusing on all unique and historical points of interest; the strength of this trail lies in the total sum of its parts rather than a handful of specific spectacles. The photography comprehensively represents the complex trail in all its character, charm, and personality.
