Germany Stamps Identification and Value Guide Overview of the Germania Series. The Germania issues of 1900 to 1922 are Germany's longest running definitive stamp series. The issues span two major

German political periods, the German Empire and the Weimar Republic, a time span which includes World War I and its aftermath.

German Stamp Price Guide

Weimar Republic Postage Stamps During the Weimar period, the Reichspost issued a wide variety of postage stamps — early issues

continued the Germania series, and 1923 saw the hyperinflation period. In the early 1930s, Germany introduced the visual style that was to become prominent during the later Third Reich period.

Collectible German Stamps | Collectors Weekly

Before the unification of the German Empire in 1871, about half of the 27 individual German states issued their own stamps. Among the most interesting are the low-value stamps created for the states of Brunswick and Mecklenburg-Schwerin, which could be divided into quarters for minor postage needs.
