at the local high school, Monster High is the most creeperific school in the world, but do you know how it came to be? It all started with a girl named Draculaura- the daughter of Dracula- who had a dream about creating a place where monsters could belong, get along, and be themselves. To make her dream come true, Draculaura and her best ghoulfriends went on fangtastic adventures around the world to recruit monsters to attend Monster High. But all was not perfectly monstrous at Monster High when a villainous zombie set out to ruin everything Draculaura and her friends worked so hard for. Can the ghouls save the day...and save but when two new girls enroll, the town will never be the same. Created just fifteen days ago, Frankie Stein is psyched to trade her father's formaldehyde-smelling basement lab for parties and prom. But with a student body totally freaked out by rumors of monsters stalking the halls, Frankie learns that high school can be rough for a chic freak like her. She thinks she finds a friend in fellow new student Melody Carver- but can a "normie" be trusted with her big secret?

Master of chilling suspense R. L. Stine proves that you never outgrow a good scare. If he frightened you then, he 'll terrify you now.

... Ellie Saks is dying to escape the city. She 's sick of dead-end jobs, her mother 's disapproval, her loser ex-boyfriend, Clay, who won 't take a hint, and the memories of a terrible incident that occurred years ago. When her best friend suggests a summer in the Hamptons, full of glitzy parties, cool cocktails, and hot dates, Ellie 's on the first Jitney out. To fund all this glamour, Ellie takes a job as a nanny. From the outside, the family 's beachfront home is perfect. But then Ellie meets four-year-old Brandon, who hasn 't spoken for months. The boy 's icy stare and demonic laughter make clear to Ellie that he is troubled, haunted by something too horrible for words. She begins to receive threatening messages and disturbing gifts. But it 's not until she barely escapes a harrowing experience that she realizes her life may depend on figuring out who ' s behind it: Clay? Brandon? And why? And every once in a while, in a crowd, she sees a face she hasn ' t seen in seven years—the face of a boy who died long ago. It would seem that Ellie ' s summer of fun has turned into a summer of horror—one she ' ll never forget . . . if she survives it at all.

Haunted art is in the eye of the beholder . . . Artist Celeste Cabot welcomes the chance to show her paintings at a craft fair in her hometown of Gatlinburg, Tennessee, where she and her Chihuahua, Van Gogh, can park her vintage Shasta trailer and sell her creations, too. Unfortunately, her sales take a hit when a customer returns a painting, claiming it 's haunted. When a fellow vendor discovers images hidden in Celeste ' s artwork—and a ghost pays her a late-night visit—she ' s shocked to realize she has psychic abilities. After the grumpy manager of the craft fair is found with a knife in his neck, Celeste ' s brushes with the paranormal may help fill in the picture—and make sure the wrong person doesn ' t get framed . . .
