Gilda Joyce: The Dead Drop book by Jennifer Allison

Gilda Joyce herself is an eccentric and quirky personality who is a bit of an outcast, largely due to her abilities and her interest in the supernatural. In the wake of father 's death many years ago, Gilda Joyce has been honing her skills as a psychic in order to communicate with the supernatural realm.

Gilda seems even more grown up and independent with as much, if not more, chutzpah than in her previous adventures. She retains and further develops her psychic powers that allow her to figure out and find the "dead drop," an agreed-upon place where spies leave crucial information for one another

(and for government officials).
