Scotland that are reflected in the manner of speech and in the social values that the author experienced during his youth. Chard work, religious belief and valuing family connections. Long before television entered the home, family and neighborhood get-togethers were common, often around the hearth fire, especially in the winter months. During those times it was common for older members to mention their escapades in not just the Second World War but the First World War and even the Boer War. The very human lives of these wholesome people, their sorrow, happiness, humor and futility, are picturesquely captured in the author's sensitive, homespun stories. Cultural landscape report for Glen Haven Village Historic District
