God Knows is a tragicomic novel written by Joseph Heller and published in 1984. Plot. It is narrated by the Biblical King David of Israel, and purports to be his deathbed memoirs; however, this David does not recount his life in a straightforward fashion, and the storyline is often hilariously fractured. Indeed, it is possible to read the book as Heller's meditation upon his own mortality, and an exploration of the Jewish view of family, life, death, etc.

God Knows Joseph Heller

This book, "God Knows", (see he has me doing it, too) is a case in point. Although it very loosely follows the biblical account of King David, it is almost entirely Heller's take on the story with just enough scriptural reference to keep it in the right path, but mostly made-up dialog, both funny and absurd at the same time.
