And he will never leave us or forsake us. Beth Redman uses a lot of scripture references and her own true life experiences to help us explore the implications of being loved by God—one who knows our name. And she invites us to call on His name as well. GOD KNOWS MY NAME is a timely book for me to read.

Before God made the world, He knew about me. Before I was born, God knew what would happen every day of my life. God knows my name. And He knows the names of everyone in the whole wide world!* God knows all about us and He loves us . . . even when we do bad things. He calls these bad things sin. Everyone who sins must be punished, but God loves us so much that He did a wonderful thing. He sent His own Son, Jesus, to be punished in our place!

I cried out to my God...my true, amazing Father, my heavenly, forever Father, the One who knows all the failures and shortcomings and yet has never ever rejected me. He wrote my name on the palm of His hands and He stretched out His arms, and as He was viciously nailed to a cross, He separated me from my sin forever and loved me enough to die ...

God Knows Your Name

“Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine.” (Isaiah 43:1). That powerful promise confirms that God knows your name! We all like to protect our name. In fact, most people would do anything to stop their name being misused or abused. I always feel happy therefore when my name is spelled or pronounced correctly.

God promises are true, and there were many promises just for Sarah. You may not want to change your legal name in the natural world. But God can change your name in the supernatural. Our identity is found in Christ and the Word of God. When we know our identity in Christ, God is able to mold us into who he has called us to be. We receive salvation, God can cultivate your gifts, and give you direction and wisdom.

No matter what our past is and regardless of our mistakes, the Lord knows our names and desires our worship and praise. As a son or daughter of the King of kings, there are many reasons why we should praise Him. He does not change. He is mightier than any problem we might face. He is all-wise and loving. He will never leave us. He is our hope.

He Knows You by Name - Church of Jesus Christ

When Enos went into the woods to pray, he recorded, "There came a voice unto me, saying: Enos, thy sins are forgiven thee, and thou shalt be blessed." 2 Moses not only prayed but also talked to God face-to-face, and God said to Moses, "I have a work for thee, Moses, my son." 3 The Lord knew Jacob's name and changed it to Israel to more accurately reflect his mission on the earth. 4 Similarly, He changed the names of Paul and Abraham and Sarah. In Doctrine and Covenants, section 25 ...

God Knows My Name Never

"God teaches us to forgive, and He gives us the grace to do so. He enables us to rise above the harshest of circumstances and to begin again. He rewrites generations of brokenness to give us an incredible hope and future

It seems almost unimaginable that the God who created the universe and all that is in it would know each and every one of our names! But the Bible says that it is so. Scripture also tells us that He knows the number of hairs on our heads, that we cannot hide from Him, and that He hears our thoughts.

God Knows Your Name: You Belong to Him | GOD TV

He knows everyone's name because He is Sovereign. When a man wearing sunglasses approached the cash register of a Midwestern pharmacy and told the employees he was going to rob them, the pharmacist couldn't believe his ears.

And no matter what others do, our heavenly Father will never, ever leave or forget us. Drawing on Scripture and her own experience, Redman invites us to explore the revolutionary implications of being loved by a God who knows our name.
