Hamilton clearly wants us to be enthralled with God's glory as he himself is. The Thesis. Hamilton argues passionately and persuasively, and though some will hesitate in deeming it 'the centre' of the Bible, God's glory in salvation through judgment is easily established as central. This is clearly seen in the very focal point of our faith: we saved through Christ receiving our judgement, all to the Glory of God.

Book Summary: God's Glory in Salvation through Judgment ...
First, with respect to the elect, God shows His glory through His mercy. By saving us from sin and death, our Creator reveals Himself as our Savior, and He is glorified for His saving work. And because we are redeemed solely on account of His kindness and not for anything in us, the credit and glory for salvation goes only to Him, not to God's Glory in Salvation Through Judgment - The Gospel ...

God was glorified through both his judgment and mercy, accorded in salvation to Israel. The New Testament unfolds the ultimate display of God's glory in justice and mercy, as it was God's righteous judgment shown on the cross that brought us salvation.

Gods Glory In Salvation Through

Hamilton argues that God's glory in salvation through judgment is the major theological thread of the whole Bible.

God's Glory in Salvation through Judgment: A Biblical ...

The author shows that God's glory in salvation through justice is an overarching pattern in the Bible's narrative of creation, fall, exile and restoration. It is also the pattern of major biblical events like the fall, flood, exodus, exile from the land, the death and resurrection of Jesus and the return of Jesus.

God's Glory in Salvation Through Judgment A Biblical ...

(359) By repentance and faith, believers are brought through judgment to salvation. "Jesus brings salvation through judgment in his death and resurrection, which glorifies God by upholding justice and making mercy possible for those whose faith will save them." (360) Christ recapitulates the history of Israel and "fulfills" the pattern of events seen in the Old Testament texts he cites. Through his ministry, Jesus renders judgment on the effects of the Genesis 3 curse.

of God in salvation through judgment. Yahweh speaks the world with a word and it is. When his word is broken, the creation itself is subjected to futility. In the judgment, though, comes a hint of future salvation.

In Exodus 34 Moses asks to see God's glory, and God reveals himself as a God who is merciful and just. James Hamilton Jr. contends that from this passage comes a biblical theology that unites the meta-narrative of Scripture under one central theme: God's glory in salvation through judgment.

So, we have seen how this theme of God's glory in salvation through judgment radiates from the first three chapters of Genesis which serves as the foundation of the whole Bible. The salvation through judgment in chapter 3 is the seed form of what will ultimately grow into a fully blossomed history of the redemption story, centered on and culminating in Jesus Christ.
