Nonprofit, Not-for Profit & For-Profit Organizations Explained

Government and Profit Governments treat our money in a distinctive way—they're not trying to make a profit. Ideally, a government wants expenditures to be very close to revenue in any given year....

- Goal of government and not-for-profit is to provide services for the betterment of society
- Goal of business is to earn profit
- No direct and proportional relationship between resources provided and the benefits received.
- Absence of transferable ownership rights.
- Collective ownership by constituents.
