GOVERNMENT IN AMERICA People,

Politics, and Policy ...
one house. -States could send up to seven delegates, but each state had only one vote. -The Continental Congress could maintain an army and navy. -no power to tax; and could not regulate commerce (which inhibited foreign trade and the development of a strong national economy).
Framing its content within a resonant " politics matters " theme and emphasizing public policy throughout, Government in America illustrates the impact that government has on the daily lives of each and every American, motivating students to become active participants in all aspects of our political system, and helping overcome the biggest challenge instructors face in this course -- student apathy toward government.
