Our Food by Grace Lin

Grace Lin is one of my favorite picture book authors, so you are probably super familiar with her on our book lists! However, this is the first time I've checked out her chapter books and they did not disappoint. In The Year of the Dog, Grace Lin writes about Pacy Lin, a young girl grappling with her identity amongst the world and her friends. This is a great book to explore Asian-American identity and heritage as a mirror or window depending on your own identity.

This is another non-series book from Grace Lin; a story about stories, where we meet again some former friends from Where the Mountain Meets the Moon, and learn more about Chinese folktales and mythology.

These are gently written, lovely books, full of adventure and pathos and imagination.
