Read this book; share this book; send Grace Lin a thank you card for sharing this story."-- Library Media Connection , starred review * "This companion novel to Lin's Newbery Honor-winning Where the Mountain Meets the Moon surpasses that book in both plot and prose, again using interspersed stories that neatly circle around one another.

Grace Lin's Latest Chapter Book: Dumpling Days. Delicious! This is another non-series book from Grace Lin; a story about stories, where we meet again some former friends from Where the Mountain Meets the Moon, and learn more about Chinese folktales and mythology. These are gently written, lovely books, full of adventure and pathos and imagination.

Grace Lin is one of my favorite picture book authors, so you are probably super familiar with her on our book lists! However, this is the first time I've checked out her chapter books and they did not disappoint. In The Year of the Dog, Grace Lin writes about Pacy Lin, a young girl grappling with her identity amongst the world and her friends. This is a great book to explore Asian-American identity and heritage as a mirror or window depending on your own identity.

Chapter Books
Growing up, Grace
Lin loved to read,
but she always
wondered why there
were never any Chinese girls in the stories she loved so much.

After finishing art
school, she decided to create the books
she wanted to read as a child. Many of

But I especially
love Grace Lin's Pacy chapter book series. The Year of the Dog is where Pacy discovers her career path in writing and
illustrating books.
The Year of the Rat
