Grace Lin is one of my favorite picture book authors, so you are probably super familiar with her on our book lists!

However, this is the first time I've checked out her chapter books and they did not disappoint. In The Year of the Dog, Grace Lin writes about Pacy Lin, a young girl grappling with her identity amongst the world and her friends. This is a great book to explore Asian-American identity and heritage as a mirror or window depending on your own identity.

"This companion novel to Lin's Newbery Honor-winning Where the Mountain Meets the Moon surpasses that book in both plot and prose, again using interspersed stories that neatly circle around one another.
