Sergius Bulgakov is widely considered to be the twentieth century's foremost Orthodox theologian, and his book The Comforter is an utterly comprehensive and profound study of the Holy Spirit. Encyclopedic in scope, The Comforter explores all aspects of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit, as they are viewed in the Orthodox tradition and throughout church history. The book has sections on the development of the doctrine of the Spirit in early Christianity and on the development of the doctrine of procession in the patristic and later Byzantine periods. It also touches on the place of the Holy Spirit in the Trinity and explores Old and New Testament notions of the Spirit of God. A concluding chapter deals with the mystical revelation of the Holy Spirit. Made available in English through the work of Boris Jakim, today's premier translator of Russian theology and philosophy into English, Bulgakov's Comforter in this edition is a major publishing event.

Our spiritual lives are much like the cars and trucks we use every day of our lives. If we give our vehicles the wrong fuel, they will break down. If we don't add the right fuel to our spiritual lives, those will break down as well. If your tank is running on empty or your life has stalled, this book may be the tow truck you're looking for. Pastor Rusty Tin's Basic Guide to Fuel Rejection Issues is written for gear heads by a gear head. Filled with language all car lovers can relate to, this concise guide shows how to diagnose problems with the spiritual fuel we put into our lives. Generation after generation of men live their lives based on the examples given to them by their fathers. When a man experiences rejection from his role model, it can change how he treats and feels about himself and others. This Basic Guide to Fuel Rejection will help you pinpoint the cause of fuel rejection in your life, forgive the offender, and ultimately break the chain of rejection, thereby changing yourself and your entire family tree for the better.
