- Designated authors should meet all four criteria for authorship in the ICMJE Recommendations

- We ask all authors, and all contributors (including medical writers and editors), to specify their individual contributions at the end of the text
- We encourage collaboration and coauthorship with colleagues in the locations where the research is conducted
- When choosing coauthors, we ask lead authors to be mindful of the benefits of diversity in authorship and to

Instructions for Authors
Authorship credit should be based on 1) substantial contributions to conception and design, acquisition of data, or analysis and interpretation of data; 2) drafting the article or revising it critically for important intellectual content; and 3) final approval of the version to be published.
INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS
To simplify this process for authors, the journal has instituted a set of essential requirements for authors to abide by when submitting a manuscript for consideration. These requirements are depicted in Figure 1 in the Instructions for Authors. Note that manuscript formatting and style are not an essential requirement.
