We slowly pull up to another stop sign on a quiet street. I continue to rub my hands through her ponytail as I look over at her.

"No, I will have this job and they gon' love me. I'll be the best Krystal they'll ever know." She looks over towards me not smiling as she says with trembling lips, "What...do you...mean?" With one shove of my hand I slam her face into the steering wheel, not once, or twice, or three times, but four or maybe five. I lose count as blood oozes out her nose, mouth and eyes. Her body stops shaking and sudden the car starts moving slowly forward as she takes her foot off of the brake. I reach over placing the car in park quickly. Removing my other hand from the back of her head, I look around on the quiet street, not seeing anyone in sight. Tossing my book bag into the backseat of her green Toyota, Camry, I lean over grabbing her, pulling her lifeless body over toward the passenger's seat. Opening the passenger's door I get out, placing her in the seat I just escape from. With her head slouched down, I close the door and run around to the driver's door. Opening the door, I look down seeing all her blood splashed on the steering wheel.

literally all just.. you're a bitch

Grimey Bitch

What goes around, comes around. Tony Jackson has to learn this lesson the hard way. Labeled the "asshole of West Philly," Tony holds no shame in having other women in his girlfriend Quanisha's bed. There is little remorse after he knocks off a convenience store and beats the cashier down with a gun. He'll rob from his girl, his friends, people he doesn't know and ya mama. He doesn't care who he hurts. The question is when will Tony figure out that Karma's a Bitch? Maybe when he starts getting his Karma instantly and mercilessly he'll get the hint. Will a heavy dose of 'Instant Karma' show him that not contributing to society in any positive way is guaranteed to get him a one way ticket to no where? Or will he just keep digging himself deeper in a hole that could end up being his final resting place... This book will probably make you laugh. But hey, don't laugh too hard... Karma is one persistent bitch that doesn't rest. Want more J.Gail books? Check out Thugs Are for Fun (a 3-part series).
