We wanted to understand better how businesses consider and pursue growth along three strategies: investing in existing high-growth activities by reallocating funds from a variety of sources; creating new products, services, or business models; and performing better by constantly optimizing their core commercial capabilities, such as sales, pricing, and marketing.

A growth strategy is a plan of action that allows you to achieve a higher level of market share than you currently have. Contrary to popular belief, a growth strategy is not necessarily focused on short-term earnings\u2014growth strategies can be long-term, too.
Let's keep that in mind with the following examples.

Another thing to keep in mind is that there are typically 4 types of strategies that roll up into a growth strategy. You might use one or all of the following:
