Are you a Black woman struggling with self confidence, self compassion or self love? Are you experiencing mental health issues such as anxiety, depression or low mood? Or you may just be a Black woman that does too much! As Black women, our ability to look after others and make it look easy, means we're often described as the "strong black woman". By nature, Black women are resilient and powerful. A fraught history of oppression has left us no choice.
These qualities are necessary; but if you're having difficulty asking for help, or you find yourself hiding your struggles from others, it's time to take your cape off. Each chapter begins with a self assessment form to help you identify where in your life you need to prioritize self care. You'll then guided activities covering the main pillars of self care: Mental Self Care: activities including grounding exercises, breathing exercises, cleaning planner Physical Self Care: activities including sleep tracker, exercise planner, food diary, personal care checklist, body scan activity Spiritual Self Care: activities including life balance activity, affirmations Emotional Self Care: activities including challenging negative thinking, boundary settings, trigger tracking Looking to the Future: activities continue on your self care journey including a 52 week self care planner and journal, extra templates, emergency self care toolkit Over 150 pages of guided activities, planners and templates to build emotional resilience and put YOU at the centre of your world for once. Do you have a child who either likes to write or needs a little prompting and alone time to create to get going? There are both writing and drawing prompts as well as a page for games (tic tac toe and hangman) and at the end of the book are ten lined pages, ten dot grid pages, and ten comic pages with nine comic panels per page. This unique style allows your child to not only write and draw, but they can illustrate their stories and poems and put stickers around their work. Their creativity can flourish with the ability to travel throughout the book on their own, and yet, reassure them that they can get help from you if needed. Some prompts will most likely require a bit of research be done or asking (mom, dad, teacher, friend, sibling) to be able to complete the prompt. This book can be used at home or on the road while traveling or on vacation. Take a peek inside with the Look Inside feature available here on Amazon.
