Guided Reading For Middle School Worksheets & Teaching ...

Guided reading helps students develop greater control over the reading process through the development of reading strategies which assist decoding and construct meaning. The teacher guides or 'scaffolds' their students as they read, talk and think their way through a text (Department of Education, 1997).

Alternate Between Guided Reading and Literature Study: Throughout the school year, middle school students should have a combination of small group reading experiences between guided reading (homogeneous groupings by level) and literature study (heterogeneous groupings with a grade-level text that will illicit rich discussion). The two different types of small group reading instruction compliment each other and give students different skills that they will need to grow as readers.

Map out the text paragraph by paragraph with prompts to highlight the information.
Procedure: Build the context for the reading by activating prior knowledge. Have students find the vocabulary in the text and highlight it as you give the definition. Move the students to scan the text by telling them which paragraph and what to highlight.
