One of the key guided reading pre-reading activities is sight word practice. We will review previously taught sight words that might appear in the text and introduce new sight words they will find in the text. There are several great ways to practice sight words that are both teacher-friendly and engaging for kids:

How to Spice Up Your Guided Reading Routine - Learning at ...

Guided Reading Activities This was the station that I was always positioned at. At this station, I was able to sit and listen to every student read to me at least once a week. I would use an instructional text (a challenging level reader) which enabled the students to apply known and newly taught reading strategies.

How to teach guided reading \(With activities\) — Literacy Ideas
Guided Reading is based on a small group approach to reading instruction. The small group strategy is the reason you're able to differentiate your instruction and give individual attention to each of the kiddos in your class.

Sample guided reading teaching points
Reading from left to write
Hearing rhyming words
Blending and segmenting onsets and rimes
Making personal connections
Decoding CVC words
Retelling the story with support
Telling what you learned from nonfiction
Decoding longer words
Making inferences
