You can guide students through these four strategies during guided reading. Take turns letting each student predict, clarify, question, and summarize. Only a few weeks is needed (depending on age). Then students can use these strategies with peers without your support. The ultimate aim would be for independent readers to use these reading strategies.

Before, during & after guided reading activities - The ...

Guided reading helps students develop greater control over the reading process through the development of reading strategies which assist decoding and construct meaning. The teacher guides or 'scaffolds' their students as they read, talk and think their way through a text (Department of Education, 1997).

How to teach guided reading (With activities) - Literacy Ideas

Teaching guided reading remotely means assessing a little differently with some creativity! There are a few ways you can assess students' progress in reading. First, you can ask parents to send you a video of their child reading the book you sent home. You can listen for accuracy, fluency, and overall confidence while reading.
