Lesson Plan Book McClelland & Stewart
This groundbreaking classic is now available in a special anniversary edition with bonus content. Winner of the Newbery Medal as well as the National Book Award, *HOLE*s is a New York Times bestseller and one of the strongest-selling middle-grade books to ever hit shelves! Stanley Yelnats is under a curse. A curse that began with his no-good-dirty-rotten-pig-stealing-great-great-grandfather and has since followed generations of Yelnatses. Now Stanley has been unjustly sent to a boys' detention center, Camp Green Lake, where the boys build character by spending all day, every day digging holes exactly five feet wide and five feet deep. There is no lake at Camp Green Lake. But there are an awful lot of holes. It doesn't take long for Stanley to realize there's more than character improvement going on at Camp Green Lake. The boys are digging holes because the warden is looking for something. But what could be buried under a dried-up lake? Stanley tries to dig up the truth in this inventive and darkly humorous tale of crime and punishment—and redemption. Special anniversary edition bonus content includes: A New Note From the Author!; "Ten Things You May Not Know About HOLES" by Louis Sachar; and more!

Passages with Text Evidence
Questions for 1st Grade : Information Help your students become text detectives! This guided reading strategies comprehension packet, which includes 15 reading passages, is designed to help kids become confident reading Levels G and H text and answering text-based questions. These passages are perfect for close reading lessons. Four multiple choice questions and three short answer questions are included with each passage. As students are learning to use evidence to support their thinking, I have them find and highlight the section of text they use to justify their answer. Two options include: * Color coded highlighting ~ Students highlight the answer to each question in a different color. * Numbered highlighting ~ Students highlight evidence within the text and then write the question number beside the highlighted evidence. Supports the following standards: Common Core Standards ELA.Literacy.RI.1.1 and ELA.Literacy.RL.1.1: Ask and answer questions about key details in a text. These passages are also useful for choral reading, fluency work and literacy centers. I often have students go on "scavenger hunts" to find and highlight words with long vowels, words with specific endings, words from our word wall, etc. The following passages are included: - The Bald Eagle - Otters - Skunks - Trees - King Penguins - The Polar Bear - Measuring with Paper Clips - Time for School - The Red Flower - The Orca - Sue's Painting - Guided reading questions - And More Many thanks for stopping by and taking a look! Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing Bright Kids

This classroom guide, provides numerous activities designed to foster student engagement, learning, and a meaningful connection to literature. It is the perfect companion to introducing popular literature in any classroom! Contained in this book are sample activities on annotating, close reading, outlining, essay prompts and essential questions. Other instructional guides simply give basic details of the literature, meaning that students read over material without digesting or learning it. Other guides take complex themes, concepts, and information and just regurgitate it to readers. This Classroom Guide series is different, in that the activities ASK of the students, and focus on citing evidence from the text in order to complete and reflect on your reading. Designed under the guidance of an experienced and certified educator, these activities guide series GUIDES the learner to discovering the answers for themselves, creating a fully detailed study guide, in the user's own words. Filled with guided reading activities, students are able to fill this guidebook with the information they gather, as they seek a deeper understanding of the text. If you read it, write it, and reflect on it, you will learn it! Teachers, you can also purchase a set of these books (or one book and make copies) for your entire class. It makes the perfect guided reading activity and will teach students how to internalize the reading, note taking, and learning process that advanced readers naturally perform. These make the perfect workbook to keep your class engaged and learning. And if your budget is an issue, feel free once you purchase to book, to make as many copies as you want for your classroom!

Owls in the Family Harper Collins Kristin Neff, Ph.D., says that it's time to "stop beating yourself up and leave insecurity behind." Self-Compassion: Stop Beating Yourself Up and Leave Insecurity Behind offers expert advice on how to limit self-criticism and offset its negative effects, enabling you to achieve your highest potential and a more contented, fulfilled life. More and more, psychologists are turning away from an emphasis on self-esteem and moving toward self-compassion in the treatment of their patients—and Dr. Neff's extraordinary book offers exercises and action plans for dealing with every emotionally debilitating struggle, be it parenting, weight loss, or any of the numerous trials of everyday living.

Instruction, Third Edition Twinkl This enhanced eBook features read-along narration. A unique monster-under-the-bed story with the perfect balance of giggles and shivers, this picture book relies on the power of humor over fear, appeals to a child's love for creatures both alarming and absurd, and glorifies the scope of a child's imagination. One night, when Ethan checks under his bed for his monster, Gabe, he finds a note from him instead: "Gone fishing. Back in a week." Ethan knows that without Gabe's familiar nightly scares he doesn't stand a chance of getting to sleep, so Ethan interviews potential substitutes to see if they've got the right equipment for the job—pointy teeth, sharp claws, and a long tail—but none of them proves scary enough for Ethan. When Gabe returns sooner than expected from his fishing trip, Ethan is thrilled. It turns out that Gabe didn't enjoy fishing because the fish scared too easily.
