Living in the 1970s is a great time to be young, energetic, and working for your lifes dreams. What are you supposed to do, however, when all the things you ever wanted in the world are suddenly available for you to take? Zoe Reilly, the popular video journalist, is once again going to find out. After a few months of a relatively settled and quiet life, she is offered another opportunity too good to refuse. Sean, her handsome workaday husband; Abbey, the talented, beautiful, successful singer-songwriter who is also Zoes best friend; and Clive, the rock n roll legend are all working very hard. Whether it is small and seemingly simple to othersor a lifelong desire that takes sacrifice and years of laborthey all have one thing in common. It can take all your energies, all your time, all your money, but if you get what you want, isnt it all worth it?

This monumental, four-volume reference overviews significant events and developments in religious history over the course of more than five millennia. Written for high school students, undergraduates, and general readers interested in the history of world religions, this massive reference chronicles developments in religious history from 3500 BCE through the 21st century. The set comprises four volumes, treating the ancient world from 3500 BCE through 499 CE, 500 through 1399, 1400 through 1849, and 1850 through 2009. Each volume includes hundreds of brief entries, arranged chronologically and then further organized by region and religion. The entries provide fundamental information on topics ranging from the neolithic Ggantija temples near Malta through the election of Mary Douglas Glasspool as bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles in 2009. Global in scope and encyclopedic in breadth, this chronology of world religions is an essential purchase for all libraries concerned with the development of human civilization. Provides interesting sidebars to entries on such topics as monotheism and the problem of evil, the construction of the Egyptian pyramids, Mesoamerican mythology, the legacy of Charlemagne, the lives of various religious thinkers and leaders, the Hundred Years' War, the indigenous religions of South Africa, the Second Great Awakening, Potala Palace in Tibet, and many others Offers a sweeping chronological presentation of faith and religion over five millennia that enables readers to see the connections between historical events and the evolution of various belief systems Includes an extensive selection of photos that helps readers visualize many of the topics discussed in the text
