The Many Mice of Mr. Brice Random House Books for Young Readers

Dr. Seuss muses on a variety of wild and wacky options for young children to consider -- Would they rather be a bullfrog or a butterfly? A minnow or a whale? A hammer or a nail? In making their choice, children will enjoy matching the words to the pictures. This title belongs to the Bright and Early Beginner Book series, developed by Dr. Seuss especially for Beginning Beginners -- preschool children on the threshold of learning to read. Using an exuberant combination of bright, bold pictures and rhythmic rhyme, Dr. Seuss introduces simple stories and concepts, adding a large helping of zany humour to help the youngest child make the all important connection between word and picture. Originally published under the pseudonym of Theo. LeSieg, The Eye Book is being relaunched with a stylish new cover design which reveals, for the first time, the true identity of the author -- Dr. Seuss himself
